

NEW ACADEMIC CONTRIBUTIONS, THEORETICAL, NEW ARGUMENTS ON SCIENCE AND THE PRACTICE OF THE DISSERTATION

(1 in English and 1 in Vietnamese in Times New Roman font, unicode encoding, size 12, no more than 01 A4 page long)

Full name of Post graduate student: NGUYEN THI MINH TRANG

Date of birth: May 16, 1979

Major: CULTURAL STUDIES                      Code: 101011605

Course: 3 Session 1 2016

Thesis title: FAMILY CULTURE OF FEMALE WORKERS IN INDUSTRIAL PARKS IN VINH LONG PROVINCE.

Principal instructor: Assoc. Prof. Dr. PHAM THI THU YEN

Secondary instructor (if any): .....

Training institution: TRA VINH UNIVERSITY

Content of the summary information page

The dissertation "Family culture of female workers in industrial parks in Vinh Long province" is a scientific work that applies the theory of culture to the study of family culture; systematically gather and present theoretical views on building family culture, building the working class and promoting the role of Vietnamese women in building, preserving and promoting the good traditional values of the Vietnamese family in the cause of industrialization – modernization of the country and international integration.

Objectively studying the situations of family culture of female workers in many aspects, from the working environment, housing issues, income and expenditure to participation and enjoyment of cultural and recreational activities, marriage - family - social relationships, access to health care and education; feelings and desires of female workers on building family cultural life, family - social relationships; analyze and clarify the issues raised in family cultural life, and at the same time identify trends in the movement and transformation of family cultural life of female workers working in industrial parks of the province.

The research results reflected in the dissertation not only raise issues of concern, provide important information, but also promote the formation of many useful groups of solutions as a basis for all levels and branches to make appropriate decisions to realize the goal of equality, for the advancement of women; take care and improve cultural and spiritual life, building family culture among female workers in particular and the working class in general, creating favorable conditions for female workers to enjoy cultural values after working time at companies and enterprises, helping them improve the efficiency of labor regeneration, accumulating more skills and knowledge to serve the labor production process, increasingly getting closed to enterprises, increasing profits for enterprises, developing family's economy contributing to the economic - cultural - social growth of Vinh Long province.

Supervisors (Sign and specify full name) ASSOC. PROF., DR. PHAM THI THU YEN	March 8, 2024 Postgraduate (Sign and specify full name) NGUYEN THI MINH TRANG
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------